Attractions in Texas

(Source: Wikipedia)

Austin, Texas:

Capitol Building:

Austin is the State Capital. The Capitol building was built in 1888, and it is a granite and marble structure that has a significant rotunda and dome, House and Senate chambers. Address: 1100, Congress Ave, Austin, TX 78701

.

Lyndon B. Johnson Presidential Library and Museum:

Exhibits about President Johnson; Location: The University of Texas,

Address: Austin. 2313 Red River St, Austin, TX 78705

(Source: Google)

Lady Bird Lake:

It is a reservoir in the Colorado River in Downtown, Austin

Barton Spring Pool:

Spring-fed pool maintaining 68° F temperature year-round with lifeguards on.

Bullock Texas State History Museum:

Exhibits on history and culture of Texas.

(Source: Google)

Lake Travis:

Camping, parks and Jet Ski.

(Source: Google)

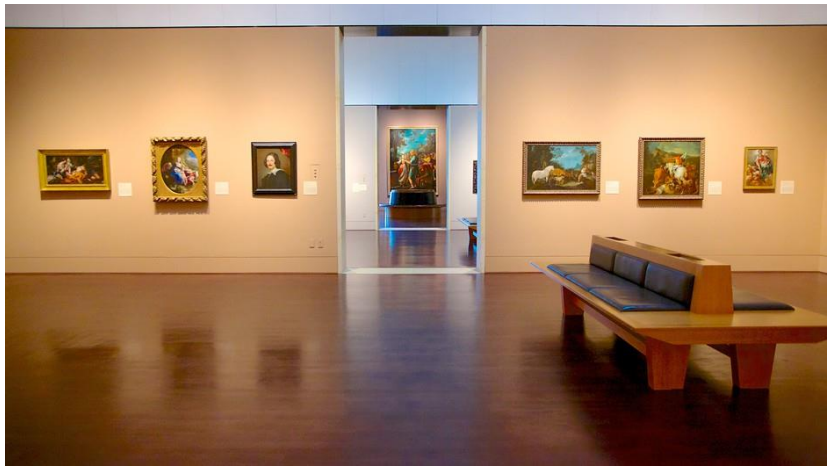
Zilker Botanical Garden:

31-acre garden with native and exotic flowers and plants, ponds and trails, and educational programs for kids.

Blanton Museum of Art:

Art collection of University of Texas; Renaissance to 20th century American paintings, Latin American art, and Greek and Roman sculptures.

Umlauf Sculpture Garden and Museum of Art:



(Source: Wikipedia)

Artistic works of American sculptor Charles Umlauf. In 1985, Charles and Angeline Umlauf donated their home, studio, and 168 Umlauf sculptures to the City of Austin. Six years later, in 1991, the city built a museum to display the artwork on adjoining city property.

Austin Aquarium and Austin Zoo:

The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza, Dallas: 3 hours from Austin, Texas

Comprehensive exhibits on John F. Kennedy's presidency and assassination at site of the sniper's nest. Address: 411 Elm St, Dallas, TX 75202

(Source: Wikipedia)

Space Center, Houston: 3 hours from Austin, Texas

Many exhibits, film shows, models, astronaut-related artifacts, moon rock, objects collected during the Mercury, Gemini, and Apollo space programs, experience a space simulator.

Big Bend National Park: 6 hours from Austin, Texas